

Miss Vera's Finishing School for Boys Who Want To Be Girls

Enrollment Application

Before attending the academy, you must complete our enrollment application. This helps us guide you in your quest. There are no right or wrong answers, I ask you only to be as honest as you can be. One other instruction, I prefer that you allow your male self to answer these questions. I may never address you as a man again, but right now, unless the question asks you to describe a fantasy, I need factual straightforward answers. Have fun completing this application.
